

Go Green with Typhoo!

Revel in the warmth with Typhoo's enhanced Green Tea range

Winter reignites the love for tea like no other season. With the drop in temperature, everyone looks for refuge in their favourite cuppa. In a spell like this, Typhoo has given tea-lovers a new reason to rejoice. With a heritage that stands older than 100 years, Typhoo Tea Limited has kept up to its promise of delivering to India the best in the world, and has now launched an enhanced range of Green Teas. With the addition of Green Tea Masala Chai, Green Tea Traditional Tulsi, Green Tea Coconut, the brand now offers the widest range manufactured in India.

Adding an Indian twist to the quintessential Green Tea, Typhoo Green Tea Masala Chai is an exotic fusion of warming Indian spices and premium green tea leaves. The delicious balance between the spicy taste of ginger, cinnamon, cardamom, black pepper and delicate green tea leaves create a heart-warming brew that supports wellbeing. Typhoo Green Tea Traditional Tulsi is a heady combination of premium green teas leaves with tulsi or holy basil that provides natural refreshment to the body and soul. Typhoo Green Tea Coconut combines the rich creaminess of coconut with premium green tea. Naturally sweet and fragrant coconut has been blended with carefully selected light and delicate green tea leaves to create a sweet and light bodied brew that supports wellbeing.
